

Volume 32 Number 1 March 2013

ISSN: 1463-6778

NEW GENETICS and SOCIETY

5

0

2

 Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group

CONTENTS

Editorial

Adam Hedgecoe and Richard Tutton

1-3

Articles

Genes, environment and responsibility for violent behavior:
"Whatever genes one has it is preferable that you are prevented from going around stabbing people"

Mairi Levitt

4-17

Analyzing consumers' preferences towards GM food in southern Spain

Macario Rodríguez-Entrena and Samir Sayadi

18-36

Surrogacy, gay male couples and the significance of biogenetic paternity

Deborah Dempsey

37-53

"Gene-fouled or gene-improved?" Media framing of GM crops and food in Hungary

Lilla Vicsek

54-77

Locating genetic disease: the impact of clinical nosology on biomedical conceptions of the human genome (1966-1990)

Andrew J. Hogan

78-96

Book Reviews

97-105

Erratum

106