

Volume 33 Number 3 September 2014

ISSN: 1463-6778

NEW GENETICS and SOCIETY

SPECIAL ISSUE: GENETIC IDENTIFICATION AND
THE RESPONSE TO MASS FATALITIES

GUEST EDITORS: JACKIE LEACH SCULLY AND ROBIN WILLIAMS

CONTENTS

SPECIAL ISSUE: GENETIC IDENTIFICATION AND THE RESPONSE TO MASS FATALITIES

GUEST EDITORS: JACKIE LEACH SCULLY AND ROBIN WILLIAMS

Editorial

- Approaching disaster victim identification
Jackie Leach Scully and Robin Williams 233-238

Articles

- Who knows who we are? Questioning DNA analysis in disaster victim identification
Caroline Bennett 239-256

- Identity, mass fatality and forensic genetics
Robin Williams and Matthias Wienroth 257-276

- Hidden in full sight: kinship, science and the law in the aftermath of the Srebrenica genocide
Erica Haimes and Victor Toom 277-294

- Ethical considerations in the use of DNA as a contribution toward the determination of identification in historic cases:
considerations from the Western front
Margaret Cox and Peter Jones 295-312

- Naming the dead: DNA-based identification of historical remains as an act of care
Jackie Leach Scully 313-332

- Death duty – caring for the dead in the context of disaster
Simon Woods 333-347

- Call for papers 348