

TIME

THE NEW U2

THE VETERAN
ROCK BAND FACES THE FUTURE

BY CATHERINE
MAYER

4 | Conversation

BRIEFING

5 | Verbatim

6 | LightBox

A spectacular volcanic eruption in Iceland

8 | World

Decoding the Pope's mass wedding; Ebola projections

10 | Above & Beyond

An American veteran returns to Vietnam to help rid it of wartime bombs

13 | Space

A big day for spaceflight

15 | United States

The privatized fight against Northern California pot farms

18 | Health

New findings on salt and blood pressure

19 | Milestones

Microsoft buys Minecraft

COMMENTARY

29 | Viewpoint

Vivienne Walt on the diminishing popularity of French President Hollande

44 | Viewpoint

Jorge Castañeda on decriminalizing all illegal drugs

ON THE COVER:

Photograph by Sebastian Kim for TIME

Secretary of State John Kerry on a Sept. 10 flight to Iraq for talks to forge a coalition against Sunni militants. Photograph by Brendan Smialowski

FEATURES

20 Taking on ISIS

The U.S. assembles an uneasy coalition in the Middle East to battle the terrorist group
by Michael Crowley

24 Great Expectations

Indian leader Narendra Modi faces an uphill struggle to push economic reforms
by Michael Schuman

30 Facing the Music

U2's free iTunes album is part of a larger mission to rescue the recording industry
by Catherine Mayer

36 Dangerous Game

A high school player's death on the field highlights the urgent need to make American football safer at all levels
by Sean Gregory

Ian McEwan

THE CULTURE

48 | Movies

The family drama This Is Where I Leave You bucks the trend of special-effects-driven blockbusters

51 | Reviews

Richard Corliss reviews Liam Neeson's latest; Tove Lo's Queen of the Clouds

52 | Pop Chart

Quick Talk with Selfie star John Cho; the pumpkin-spice craze; the return of the Grinch

54 | The Amateur

Kristin van Ogtrop offers her own Common Core standards for teens

56 | 10 Questions

Author Ian McEwan