

Cover Story

Championing Taiwan

Presidential front runner Tsai Ing-wen wants to put the island's interests first

By Emily Rauhala p. 32

The Heart of Chechnya mosque in Grozny

Putin's Secret Army

How the Russian President turned Chechen enemies into his closest allies

By Simon Shuster p. 26

Nip. Tuck. Or Else.

Why you'll soon get plastic surgery, even if you may not really want to

By Joel Stein p. 38

Chasing History

Tennis star Serena Williams closes in on the sport's first Grand Slam since 1988

By Sean Gregory p. 46

On the cover: Photograph by Adam Ferguson for TIME

Conversation 4

Verbatim 5

The Brief

Another stunning cybersecurity breach; drones vs. terrorists in the Middle East 7

What happens if Greece abandons the euro? 9

Ian Bremmer on Obama's Pacific trade deal; the season of shark attacks 10

Farewell to jazz great Ornette Coleman 11

Paintball D-Day in Oklahoma 12

Quick Talk with Republican candidate John Kasich 14

The View

Kareem Abdul-Jabbar on the Rachel Dolezal scandal 15

Two World Trade Center plans unveiled; what criminals can teach us about creativity 17

Would the Iran nuclear deal be good for the U.S.? 18

Tackling the U.S.'s infrastructure problems 20

Joe Klein on the relaunch of the Bush and Clinton dynasties 21

Time Off

Inside Out's playful take on your brain; a lesser True Detective 49

Sophie McManus' debut novel, The Unfortunates 52

What to love and leave from this week in culture 53

Joel Stein on why he won't be switching jobs anytime soon 54

9 Questions with playwright and AIDS activist Larry Kramer 56