

TIME

CHEAP FUEL

How long can it last?
How low will it go?

THAILAND ฿190.00
HONG KONG HK$120.00
INDONESIA Rp 12,000.00
JAPAN ¥1,200.00
KOREA ₩1,200.00
MALAYSIA RM 120.00
NEW ZEALAND NZ$120.00
PHILIPPINES ₱1,200.00
SINGAPORE S$120.00
TAINWAN NT$220.00
USA/UK/CA $120.00

2 | Conversation

BRIEFING

3 | Verbatim

4 | LightBox

An MLK tribute march in Selma, Ala.

6 | LightBox

Ultra-Orthodox Jews in Israel practice capoeira

8 | World

The coup in Yemen; Ian Bremmer on China's shaky allies

11 | Tech

VC funding for startups is booming

12 | Spotlight

Tallying the damage done to oceans

14 | United States

Supreme Court to rule on gay marriage

15 | Sports

A Super Bowl preview

16 | Health

The benefits of yoga for men

17 | Milestones

Tony Verna, inventor of instant replay, dies

COMMENTARY

38 | In the Arena

Joe Klein on Barack Obama's renewed sense of purpose

ON THE COVER:

TIME photo-illustration. Photographs by Jody Dole—Getty Images; Foodcollection/Getty Images

A gallon of gas went for $1.58 on Jan. 15 at this station in Nevada, Mo.

Photograph by Barrett Emke for TIME

FEATURES

18 Barreling Down

Cheap oil is bringing relief to U.S. consumers and change across the globe
by Alex Altman, Emily Barone, Rana Foroohar, Girish Gupta, Bill Saporito and Bryan Walsh

26 Blond Appeal

London Mayor Boris Johnson is Britain's most popular politician—and he could become its next Prime Minister
by Catherine Mayer

30 Souped Up

Campbell's CEO Denise Morrison hopes to boost sales with healthier snacks
by Eliza Gray

34 Musical Interlude

The Super Bowl halftime show has become pop's biggest stage
by Daniel D'Addario

THE CULTURE

40 | Movies

Canadian director Xavier Dolan's Cannes-winning Mommy

42 | Movies

Richard Corliss on American Sniper and the Oscar race

44 | Pop Chart

Quick Talk with Portlandia's Carrie Brownstein; emoji art; the coming Bieber roast

46 | Travel

The effects of the strong U.S. dollar

47 | Tuned In

James Poniewozik on the legacy of Parks and Recreation

48 | The Awesome Column

Joel Stein rereads his college application and cringes

Nick Offerman and Amy Poehler of Parks and Recreation

