

Cover Story

Greece Tempts the Fates

The country's voters rejected an E.U. bailout. Now what?

By Simon Shuster p. 18

Pensioners wait outside an Athens bank to withdraw their allotment of cash

Wellspring of Jihadists

Tunisia, the birthplace of the Arab Spring, is the world's biggest contributor of foreign fighters in Syria and Iraq

By Naina Bajekal p. 24

Leftward Ho!

Elizabeth Warren, Bernie Sanders and the populist fury animating the Democratic Party

By Michael Scherer p. 28

The Path to Pluto

A NASA space probe is set to examine a distant, icy world

By Michael D. Lemonick p. 34

The Sky Is the Limit

The "starchitect" behind the Burj Khalifa in Dubai is building an even taller skyscraper

By Vivienne Walt p. 38

On the cover: Photograph by Petros Giannakouris—AP

Verbatim 4

The Brief

Donald Trump's foot-in-mouth disease finally costs him
5

Terrorism vs. tourism: the dollar cost
7

Ian Bremmer on where thrill-seeking investors should put their money
8

Quick Talk with the Dalai Lama on his 80th birthday
9

Team USA wins the women's World Cup 10

The View

Victor Luckerson on why millennials can't afford to see themselves as "postracial"
12

The history, culture and business of flowers
14

The wi-fi-enabled LED fixture: an idea whose time has come?
15

Rosalind Wiseman on why the video-game industry should stop objectifying women 15

Sean Gregory on golf wunderkind Jordan Spieth
16

Time Off

Anne Heller on Ayn Rand's newly published early novel
45

Amy Schumer and Judd Apatow's Trainwreck
47

James Poniewozik on the spiritual grace of Rectify
48

Joel Stein to his bank: I don't have a favorite color, O.K.?
51

10 Questions with mixed-martial-arts star Ronda Rousey
52