

TIME

THE SURVIVOR

For 60 years, the Dalai Lama has been the face of Buddhism. China has another plan

by CHARLIE CAMPBELL

6
8
0

9 771064 030005

Small vertical text on the left edge, including subscription information and contact details.

TIME

VOL. 193, NO. 10 | 2019

HEYLI

2 | From the Editor 4 | For the Record

The Brief

News from the U.S.
and around the world

7 | Probing the mystery of Jared Kushner's security
clearance

10 | Congo attacks
raise fear of Ebola's spread

11 | Milestones:
Luke Perry and André Previn

12 | TIME with ...
the chief ranger
of Grand Canyon
National Park

The View

Ideas, opinion, innovations

15 | Can climate change shape the 2020 election?

17 | Ian Bremmer:
why Israel's Benjamin Netanyahu is fighting for his political life

18 | dream hampton
on R. Kelly and the meaning of justice

19 | Behind the
ongoing U.S. measles outbreaks

Features

The Journey North

One migrant family's perilous trip to the U.S.

By Jay Root 20

Man of Faith

The Dalai Lama reflects on a life of exile, tension with China,
and his search for joy

By Charlie Campbell 28

Varsity Hotshots

High school shooting teams are growing in popularity

By Sean Gregory 38

Time Off

What to watch, read,
see and do

45 | Brie Larson
plays Marvel's
first solo female superhero

48 | Reviews:
Now Apocalypse
and Gloria Bell

50 | Art: rethinking
Frida Kahlo

52 | 8 Questions for
fashion designer
Tory Burch

Belongings that now 7-year-old Heyli left behind hang on a wall in a house her parents
leased in Olancho, Honduras

Photograph by Verónica G.
Cárdenas for TIME and the Texas Tribune

ON THE COVER: Photograph
by Ruven Afanador for TIME